Gallagher and Community Leisure UK

The Gallagher Charity and Healthcare division works with more than 20 Community Leisure UK members to help them manage and mitigate the risks they face in the not-for-profit sector.

We began our official partnership with Community Leisure UK in April 2023 to build on our established relationships with the organisation and its members. Not only do we provide bespoke insurance programmes for members, but we also support them through a range of risk management services, regular knowledge sharing and industry insights. Many CLUK members have already taken advantage of this extra value, including IOSH training and cyber risk management consultations, to name a few.

Our dedicated team is here to assist you as you protect and grow your organisation, helping you serve your community and realise your vision.

“We are delighted to welcome Gallagher Insurance as a new business partner. We look forward to working closely together to support our members, as well as sharing insight and learning.”

“My experience with the team at Gallagher has been extremely positive. Throughout our discussions and negotiations, they have demonstrated an excellent grasp of my sector and helped us to identify and, where possible, mitigate risks for the organisation. Their prompt responses and attention to detail have provided me and my colleagues with confidence, and we look forward to a long and fruitful partnership.”

Managing Health and Safety Risk

Creating a safe workplace is about more than rules and regulations to keep you on the right side of the law. Adopting a health and safety culture can help reduce the risk of accidents, injuries and complaints — and, therefore, claims.

This means that a safer workplace can impact the underwriting of your insurance and risk — potentially helping to lower your insurance premiums. It can also play a part in nurturing a more motivated and productive workforce, as it can help improve employee wellbeing.

“I completed an excellent IOSH Health and Safety course in association with Gallagher, having been advised of the course by CLUK. The course tutor, Chris, was amazing, and the location was second to none. I really enjoyed the course and highly recommend it.”

Susan Rider, General Manager, The Lenton Centre, 2025

Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) training from Gallagher

Gallagher can support you with IOSH Managing Safely courses, which take place across our UK offices. The three-day course aims to provide managers, supervisors and staff with the knowledge to manage health and safety in their organisations.

By attending, you can expect to achieve:

- Greater productivity from fewer hours lost due to sickness and accidents
- Improved companywide safety awareness culture and appreciation of safety measures
- Active staff involvement to improve the workplace
- Enhanced reputation with your business stakeholders
- An official IOSH training certificate/accreditation

The Gallagher Cyber Risk Management practice

Understanding your organisation's likely risks and exposures means you can be better equipped to bolster and improve your cybersecurity processes. Gallagher has its own Cyber Risk Management team to help organisations take a proactive approach to their cyber exposure and strengthen defences.

Research suggests that around a third of UK charities experienced some form of cybersecurity breach or attack in the last 12 months¹.
